About This Release

Pushing the envelope... On our next release Berlin based producer Robot Koch (Jahcoozi/The Tape) joins forces with San Antonian MC Cerebral Vortex (215:The Freshest Kidz) for some nasty, bassheavy club hiphop that already got the stamp of approval from the likes of Flying Lotus, Mochipet or Rustie amongst others. UpMyAlley family members moO + fLako on re-smack duties, and boy they delivered. Comes with Vocal Versions, Instrumentals + Accapella and Artwork by Berlin based Artistcrew 44flavours. Not to miss.

Robot Koch is the mastermind behind the critically acclaimed Jahcoozi project and post rock/hiphop outfit The Tape vs RQM. If he's not on tour with Jahcoozi or Djing somewhere in the world he still finds time to produce / remix other people and to write music for film scores. So far Robot made beats and remixes for artists like Infinite Livez (Ninja Tune/Big Dada), Christopher Wiltis (Ghostly International), Rustie (Stuff Records) and Amanda Blank (downtown rec) amongst others. New tunes with Nomi (Hercules and Love Affair) and Addiquit (the new protégé of Cat Power) are in the pipeline so better get your gear right. Robot is also know for wicked DJ sets and mashups and for not getting a lot of sleep.

Cerebral Vortex hails from San Antonio / Texas and, together with Buddy Leezle, forms the "two-man Club Rap Machine" that is 215:The Freshest Kidz. On "Vortex Cookies" Cerebral Vortex proves that he can step up without his partner effortlessly; his flow + rap style hits impeccably and is a perfect match for Robot Koch's stripped down electronic hiphop beats. Forget Oreos eat Vortex Cookies!

Rather than asking around for remixes UpMyAlley likes to keep things within the family... moO already released two fantastic 12" s on UpMyAlley and again showcases his versatility with his version of Vortex Cookies, emphasizing one of the key elements of club music: Bass. fLako appeared on Beatnicks Vol.2, will have another track on Beatnicks Vol.3 and is currently working on more material to be relased on UpMyAlley. His frantic "Omegaman" live drum take on Vortex Cookies left us speechless and shocked the moment it popped out of the speakers for the first time: can it get any heavier than this?

Expect more from Robot Koch in the not too distant future as his vault is filling up with heavy beats and fresh collaborations every day – stay tuned.
