About this release

Rush Hour is proud to present a compilation of Anthony 'Shake' Shakir's best work he released on his Frictional label (and some on 7th City too) over the past 15 years.

The label Shake started brought us some of the deepest, funkier and most diverse techno, though much overlooked in many cases. After a few years hiatus, Shake is now back and will be recording and releasing on Frictional soon. But first we look back and/or get the chance to catch up with his catalogue.

This compilation includes all of the classics like "Arise", "Frictionalized", "Get A Feeling", "My Computer Is An Optimist" "The Floor Filler", as well as unreleased tracks: "The Other One", "Frenchie" & "Psychotic Tango". All tracks are re-mastered.

This release will come as deluxe packaged triple CD, which is limited to 1000 numbered copies.
