About this release

From Philadelphia beatmaker Knxwledge has been bubbling beneath the surface in the virtual world. Making his name via Myspace, global mixes spinning around the world and with a Mary Anne Hobbs mix & plays from Benji B already under his belt he's ready to step up to the plate in 2010 with his first solo release. 15 tracks here of varying rhythmic structures, lengths and speeds which go way further than mere beats and snippets. Sloppy, on beat and off its all thrown in the beat blender. Artwork comes via Teebs (My Hollow Drum / Brainfeeder).

Label Biog

All City will be releasing a series of one off 45s this year in addition to a 10 inch series from LA producers and a series of collaborative 12 inches plus some one bits such as this one!
